

Refugee Insights

Refugees are not statistics – but mothers, fathers and children whose lives have been turned upside down by persecution, conflict, violence or human rights violations.

We are witnessing the highest levels of displacement on record, so an understanding of the scale and global impact of the refugee crisis is important as we consider our response on a personal and global level.

The information below will be useful as you prepare for, and participate in World Refugee Sabbath on 20 June.

70.8 million forcibly displaced people worldwide. That's 2.3 million people more than the previous year.

Where the world's displaced people are being hosted

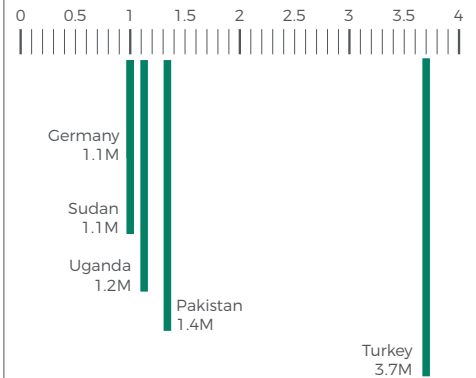

About 80 per cent of refugees live in countries neighbouring their countries of origin

One-third of refugees (6.7 million people) are hosted by the world's poorest countries

Top refugee-hosting countries

Half of the world's refugees are children

Refugee children are 5x more likely to be out of school than their non-refugee peers

More than half of school-aged refugees (3.7M) do not attend school
